Seven things you can expect...

1. You can expect it to be challenging and difficult. This will take discipline and focus on your part. Disciples are known for their discipline.
2. If you stick to your commitment to the Lord, you should see a great increase in your faith and your personal spiritual transformation.
3. God may answer your request during these 21 days, but he may not. There is no way for people to know exactly what God is going to do. We do know that during this emphasis we will draw closer to the Lord and that is our responsibility.
4. You will be more sensitive to God's Holy Spirit in your life. Removing the necessities and distractions of life will add a new sense of clarity to the voice of God.
5. You will have an increased fellowship with God and have a greater understanding of what it means to depend upon Him to meet your needs. The biblical word for this is the Supplication of God.
6. You should find yourself praying smaller direct prayers throughout the day.

7. You should expect an increase in spiritual tension and resistance from the Devil. The Bible doesn't speak at all on the physical dangers of fasting. However, on several occasions mentions the spiritual danger of fasting, specifically the pride and acknowledgement of being a devoted, zealous and admirable disciple.

3 Dangers to guard against...

1. The "God will reward me for this" mentality. Fasting is not the "work" that earns blessings from the hand of God. This is a demonic lie from our consumer culture.

2. The Pride and Self-righteous attitude that can come with practicing spiritual disciplines. This is not about you being the best disciple; this is about your desire and hunger to draw closer to God.

3. The idea of breaking your fast because you've already done enough. Several times during the fast you will think to yourself "I can't do this any longer", and you will try to justify breaking your fast since you've already done more than ever before.

Don't quit
